Content

Title：	Foreigners who are deported by court’s decision and are unable to pay off the fine or provide an adequate amount of security deposit, may have the restriction leaving this country lifted. Ch
Date：	1998.03.03
Legislative：	Announced by the Ministry of Finance Tai-Tsai-Kuan-Tzu No. 870101041 on March 3, 1998.
Content：	Where a foreign national fails to pay a fine imposed under the Customs Anti-smuggling Act, the restriction on exit from the country may be lifted once the person liable for the penalty has paid the fine in full or has furnished property equivalent to the amount of the fine as security to Customs in accordance with Article 48 of the Customs Act. However, where a foreign national is subject to a disposition of deportation rendered by a court decision and is unable to pay off the fine or provide an adequate amount of security, the restriction may be lifted and the deportation enforced. The same shall apply to similar cases arising thereafter.