Chapter IV - Tax Return and Payment

Article 8

Certificates subject to the levy of stamp tax shall be affixed with a sufficient amount of tax stamps at the time of delivery or use. If the due tax amount is too large and the affixation of tax stamps is inconvenient, the tax authority may issue a tax payment note for taxpayer to pay. Stamp tax to be paid on various certificates used by public or private enterprises may be paid by filing a collective tax return, upon the approval of the local tax authority. The procedure for filing collective tax returns shall be prescribed by the MOF.

Article 9

Stamp tax shall be computed in common currency dollar. For cases where stamp tax is affixed to actual items, if the stamp tax for each item is less than one dollar of the common currency or the remainder of the tax amount for each item is less than one dollar of the common currency, they will be exempted from affixing. For cases where stamp tax is paid by filing a collective tax return, tax is waived if the collective tax amount is less than one dollar of common currency. Where the remainder of the collective tax amount is less than one dollar of the common currency, the remainder is also waived.

Article 10

When tax stamps are affixed, the taxpayer shall stamp and cancel each tax stamp at the seam between the tax stamp and the original paper. Taxpayers may sign or draw in place of the stamp. However, if the tax stamps are continuous and cannot be close to the seams on the original paper, the tax stamps can be canceled by stamping on the seams between tax stamps.

Article 11

Tax stamps that have been affixed and cancelled shall not be removed for reuse.

Article 12

If two or more copies of the same certificate are required to be held by each or related party, a tax stamp shall be affixed to each copy. If a copy or transcript of the same certificate is deemed to be used as the original, a stamp tax shall be affixed.

Article 13

If a certificate has two or more properties which are all subject to the same tax rate, only one tax amount shall be affixed; if the tax rates are different, the tax amount shall be computed according to the higher tax rate.

If a high-tax certificate should be used and is substituted by a low-tax certificate, a full amount of high tax stamp must be affixed on the certificate.

If a non-taxable certificate is used to substitute for the taxable certificate, a full amount of tax stamps should be affixed according to its category.

Article 14

If two or more certificates are produced for the same act, unless otherwise provided by this Act, tax stamps shall be affixed to each certificate according to its category.

Article 15

If the relevant parties agree to continue to use an expired certificate, a separate tax stamp should be affixed.

Article 16

For a certificate with a tax stamp affixed, if the original certificate is modified due to changes in facts and continues to be used, additional tax stamps should be affixed for the changed part if it is required according to this Act.

Article 17

If the amount contained in a taxable certificate is in foreign currency, when it is delivered or used, it shall be converted into national currency at an exchange rate prescribed or approved by the government for the purpose of determining stamp tax.

Article 18

If the dollar amount is not stated on a taxable certificate, the stamp tax should be computed and affixed based on the name and quantity of the products listed on the certificate and the current local price at the time of use.

Article 19

(deleted).

Article 20

Books and folders recording the receipt of monetary payments shall be affixed with tax stamps for each transaction. The same applies to the payment book with the payee's signature or seal in place of a receipt. The payer should deduct the tax amount from the payment and affix the tax stamp for the payee.

If a temporary receipt is issued first and then a formal receipt is issued for a transaction, or if an installment receipt is issued first and then a general receipt is issued for total installment payment, the temporary receipt or installment receipt should be affixed with tax stamps respectively. When a formal receipt or a general receipt is issued, the temporary receipt or installment receipts shall be pasted to the back. If the tax amounts are equal, the formal receipt or the general receipt shall not be affixed with a tax stamp; if they are not equal, the insufficient tax amount should be made up by affixing tax stamps on the formal receipt or general receipt.

When issuing a formal receipt or a general receipt, if the temporary receipt or installment receipts are not pasted to the back as required, a tax stamp shall be affixed for the full amount stated.

Chapter V - Examination

Article 21

The inspection of stamp tax shall be implemented by the agency in charge of stamp tax under the MOF in accordance with the Tax Collection Act; the inspection rules shall be prescribed by the MOF.

Article 22

Any person may report violation of this Act to the competent tax authority.

Chapter VI - Penalties

Article 23

Violation of the provisions of Paragraph 1, Article 8, or Articles 12 to 20, by failing to affix the required stamp tax or affixing an insufficient amount thereof, shall result in a penalty of five to fifteen times the amount of the underpaid tax, in addition to the requirement of affixing the appropriate stamp tax.

When paying stamp tax by filing a collective tax return, those who fail to pay within the specified period shall be dealt with in accordance with the provisions of Article 20 of the Tax Collection Act; if payment is still not made after thirty days, in addition to being referred to the court by the tax authorities for compulsory execution, a penalty of one to five times the amount of the delinquent tax shall be imposed depending on the severity of the circumstances.

Violators of the provisions of Article 4, in addition to penalties prescribed for the underpayment portion pursuant to the first paragraph, shall be subject to fines not exceeding one thousand dollars, depending on the severity of the circumstances.

Article 24

Violators of the provisions stipulated in Article 10 shall, according to the severity of the circumstances, be fined five to ten times the amount indicated by the unstamped or improperly cancelled stamp tax.

Violators of the provisions stipulated in Article 11 shall, according to the severity of the circumstances, be fined twenty to thirty times the amount indicated by the improperly reused stamp tax.

Article 25

Those who obstruct the inspection of stamp tax shall be subject to prosecution under the Criminal Code of the Republic of China for the offense of obstructing official duties.

Article 26

If the same certificate violates the provisions of this Act in two or more circumstances, separate rulings shall be made and combined penalties shall be imposed.

Article 27

(deleted).

Article 28

(deleted).

Article 29

Any violation of this Act's provisions regarding certificates shall result in penalties. In the event of tax evasion or removed for reuse thereafter, the responsible party for affixing the tax stamp shall still be required to supplement the stamp tax according to the amount of tax due. Failure to cancel or improper cancellation shall also require the responsible party for affixing the tax stamp to perform the cancellation in accordance with the Act. If the whereabouts of the responsible person are unknown, the certificate user or holder shall be responsible for arranging the necessary procedures.

Chapter VII - Other Provisions

Article 30

The enforcement rules of this Act shall be formulated by the MOF and submitted to the Executive Yuan for approval.

Article 31

This Act shall come into effect upon its promulgation.

The effective date of amendments to this Act shall be set by the decree of the Executive Yuan.
