The agricultural tractors shall be limited to those conforming to the scope of specifications set forth by the competent authority of the relevant industry.

Article 16

(Deleted)

The application for exemption of business tax on fuel oil used by agricultural machinery and equipment and agricultural tractors referred to in Subparagraph 27 of Paragraph 1 of Article 8 of the Act shall be handled according to the criteria for the use of fuel oil approved by the competent agricultural authority and with the proof of purchase of fuel oil issued by the same.

The application for exemption of business tax on the fuel oil used by fishing boats referred to in Subparagraph 28 of Paragraph 1 of Article 8 of the Act shall be handled according to the criteria for use of fuel oil approved by the competent authority and with the proof of purchase of fuel oil issued by the same.

Article 16-2

Machinery and equipment which are used for fishing boats and exempt from business tax under Subparagraph 28 of Paragraph 1 of Article 8 of the Act shall be limited to fishing equipment, main engine, auxiliary engine, freezing equipment, power generator, communication equipment, fish searching equipment, navigation equipment and other machinery and equipment used for fishing boats conforming to any of the following conditions:

1. Machinery and equipment which are for exclusive use on fishing boats and conforming to the specifications specified by the central competent authority of agricultural affairs.
2. Machinery and equipment which are not for exclusive use on fishing boats, but are sold for use on fishing boats.

Any business entity selling the goods set forth in Subparagraph 2 of the preceding paragraph shall indicate on the uniform invoice the business license number of the fishing business of the purchaser or the reference number of the letter of the competent authority approving the building of the fishing boat involved and shall keep a photocopy of said approval letter on file for verification by the tax collection authority.

Article 16-3

The term "feed" as used in the former part of Subparagraph 19 of Paragraph 1 of Article 8 of the Act means foodstuffs as defined in Article 3 of the Feed Control Act.

The term "unprocessed raw agricultural, forestry, fishery, and livestock products, and by-products thereof" as used in the former part of Subparagraph 19 of Paragraph 1 of Article 8 of the Act means any of the following:

1. Unprocessed, original agricultural, forestry, fishery and livestock products and by-products.
2. Agriculture, forestry, fishery, and livestock products and by-products that have only been subject to simple treatment by slaughtering, cutting, cleaning, shelling, or freezing without any alteration being made to their fundamental nature, and that are not mechanically sealed in bottles (or cans or tubs). However, those sold together with other goods or services are excluded.
3. Other products determined by the MOF in consultation with the Ministry of Agriculture.

The "agricultural, forestry, fishery, and livestock products and by-products harvested or captured by farmers or fishermen and sold by the same" as provided in the latter part of Subparagraph 19 of Paragraph 1 of Article 8 of the Act, and "fishery products captured and sold by fishermen" as provided in Subparagraph 20, shall be limited to those produced or captured and sold solely by the farmer or fisherman themselves, and exclusive of those purchased from others.

Article 16-4

The term "social welfare services" as used in Subparagraph 4 of Paragraph 1 of Article 8 of the Act means services required to provide social welfare services, vocational rehabilitation services, and public assistance services in accordance with the Protection of Children and Youths Welfare and Rights Act, the Senior Citizens' Welfare Act, the People with Disabilities Rights Protection Act, the Public Assistance Act, the Domestic Violence Prevention Act, the Sexual Assault Crime Prevention Act, the Sexual Harassment Prevention Act, and other laws and regulations relating to social welfare.

Article 17

The term "antiques" as used in Subparagraph 3, Article 9 of the Act means antiquities as defined in Item 8 of Subparagraph 1 of Article 3 of the Cultural Heritage Preservation Act.

Article 17-1

Where a wholesale dealer in an agricultural products wholesale market purchases agricultural products from the said wholesale market and sells such products in the same wholesale market or another wholesale market, the sales amount thereof shall be eligible for application of 0.1% business tax rate prescribed in Paragraph Two, Article 13 of Act.

Chapter 3 Calculation of Tax

Article 18

When a business entity uses goods or services in a trade for the goods or services of others, the sales amount shall be the higher of the prevailing prices for the goods or services traded-out and traded-in.

Article 19

The sales amount in the circumstances of deemed sales of goods as specified in Paragraph 3 of Article 3 of the Act shall be determined as follows:

1. Under Subparagraphs 1 and 2: the current price of goods.
2. Under Subparagraphs 3 to 5: for purchasing goods on behalf of a third party, the actual price of the goods purchased; for requesting a third party to sell goods and for selling goods on behalf of a third party, the agreed sales price of the consigned goods.

The business entity undertaking sales or purchases referred to in Subparagraph 2 above shall prepare written agreements for verification.

The provisions of the preceding two Paragraphs shall also be applicable to the deemed sale of services as prescribed in Paragraph 4 of Article 3 of the Act.

Article 20

Where a business entity sells goods by an installment method, the price stipulated to be received in each installment shall be the sales amount, unless it is stipulated that, at the time of the collection of the first installment, the entire price receivable is to be defined as the sales amount.

Article 21

Where a business entity sells a parcel of land together with building fixed on the land, unless the selling price for the land and that for the building are stated separately, the sales amount for the building shall be calculated based on the ratio of the assessed standard price of the unit of the building (inclusive of business tax) to the total of the government-assessed current value of the land and the assessed standard price of the unit of the building (inclusive of business tax). The formula for calculation is as follows:

Selling price of the building =

Assessed standard price of the unit of the building × (1 + Applicable tax rate)

Selling price of the land and building × $\frac{\text{Assessed standard price of the unit of the building} \times (1 + \text{Applicable tax rate})}{\text{Government-assessed current value of the land} + \text{Assessed standard price of the unit of the building} \times (1 + \text{Applicable tax rate})}$

Government-assessed current value of the land + Assessed standard price of the unit of the building × (1 + Applicable tax rate)

Sales amount of the building = Selling price of the building ÷ (1 + Applicable tax rate)

Article 22

Where a business entity issues government uniform invoices before it makes delivery of the goods or before it renders services, the amount in the issued government uniform invoices shall be treated as its sales amount.

Article 23

The incentive bonus earned or paid by a business entity in accordance with a sales contract shall be treated as purchase or sales discount, respectively.

Article 24

With respect to a business entity subject to business tax calculation under Section 1 of Chapter 4 of the Act, the sales amount for security deposits it receives from the leasing out of property shall be calculated on a monthly basis, provided that for any term of lease of less than a full month, the sales amount need not be calculated. The formula for calculation is as follows:

Sales amount =

Fixed interest rate for a one-year postal time deposit as announced on 1 January of the lease year ÷ 12

Security deposit ×

1 + Applicable tax rate

With respect to a business entity subject to calculation of business tax under Section 2 of Chapter 4 of the Act, the sales amount for security deposits it receives from the leasing out of property shall be calculated on a monthly basis, provided that for any term of lease of less than a full month, the sales amount need not be calculated. The formula for calculation is as follows:

Sales amount = Security deposit × Fixed interest rate for a one-year postal time deposit as announced on 1 January of the lease year ÷ 12

Article 25

The term "current price" as used in the Act refers to the current market price prevailing in the locality for the sale of the same goods or services.

Article 26

Goods or services for entertainment purposes referred to in Subparagraph 3 of Paragraph 1 of Article 19 of the Act shall include the entertainment of guests at a banquet and gifts which have nothing to do with the promotion of business.

The term "passenger car for personal use" as used in Subparagraph 5 of Paragraph 1 of Article 19 of the Act refers to a passenger automobile having not more than nine seats and which is not used for the sale of goods or rendering of services.

Article 27

Where the personal effects brought in by passengers entering into the territory of the ROC exceed the duty-exemption limit, the excess shall be subject to business tax to be calculated, in accordance with Article 20 of the Act, on the duty-paid value determined based on "The Rules Governing the Declaration, Examination, Duty Payment, and Release of Personal Effects Carried by Incoming Passengers" .

Article 28

Where the value of an imported postal parcel exceeds the limit for the exemption of duty set out in "Regulations Governing Customs Clearance Procedures for the Import and Export of Postal Parcels" , a business tax shall be imposed at the full amount of the value of the duty to be paid upon importation in accordance with Article 20 of the Act.

Article 28-1

(Deleted)

Article 29

In the event a business entity subject to calculation of business tax under Section 1 of Chapter 4 of the Act fails to submit the input tax vouchers for deduction from the output tax in the current reporting period, it may defer submission of the vouchers until the following reporting period. If the business entity still fails to do so in the following reporting period, it shall, in the reporting period when it actually submits the vouchers for deduction from the output tax, specify the reasons. However, the time period for submission of the input tax vouchers for deduction from the output tax shall be limited to ten years.

Article 30

A deduction copy of the uniform invoice marked with the words "Remedial Issuance for Tax Evasion" may not be used as a voucher for deduction from the output tax or for reduction of the assessed tax. However, this requirement does not apply if the remedial uniform invoice is issued as a result of a report from the purchaser.

If any of the following circumstances exists, the supplemental business tax collected by Customs may not be reported for deduction from the output tax:

1. When a business entity importing goods is found to have under-reported the duty-paid value of the imported goods under any of the circumstances set out in the subparagraphs of Paragraph 1 of Article 51 of the Act.
2. Where a bonded zone business entity, a duty-free shop administered by Customs, or a duty-free shop on an offshore island takes inventory of its bonded goods and the quantity of the actual inventory is less than the quantity of the ending book inventory.

Article 31

Where a business entity, whose business tax is determined by the tax authority in charge as prescribed in Article 23 of the Act, has documents supporting the purchases stated in Paragraph 1 of Article 19 of the Act, the tax paid on such purchases cannot be credited based on Article 25 of the Act.

Article 32

Where a business entity applies, based on article 23 and paragraph 1 of Article 24 of the Act, for changing the method of calculating its business tax into the one provided in Section I of Chapter IV of the Act, a decision shall be made by the tax authority in charge within one month. Such business entity shall use government uniform invoices, set up books of accounts from the first day of the month in which approval of change is granted by the tax authority in charge, and file business tax returns and pay the tax in accordance with the reporting period specified in Article 35 of the Act.

The creditable tax on goods or services purchased, as prescribed in Paragraph 2 of Article 25 of the Act, which is unused before the change mentioned in the preceding Paragraph is made may be claimed against the business tax payable after the change is made.

The preceding two Paragraph shall be applicable mutatis mutandis to those small-scale enterprises which are determined by the MOF as having to calculate their business tax in accordance with Section I of Chapter IV of the Act.

Article 32-1

Where a business entity subject to calculation of business tax under Section 1 of Chapter 4 of the Act sells goods or services to a non-business entity and issues a uniform invoice pursuant to the latter part of Paragraph 3 of Article 32 of the Act, the formula for calculation of the sales amount and output tax to be reported in accordance with Article 35 of the Act is as follows:

Output tax = Total amount of the uniform invoices issued in the current reporting period ÷ (1 + Applicable tax rate) x Applicable tax rate

Sales amount = Total amount of the uniform invoices issued in the current reporting period - Output tax

The output tax referred to in the preceding paragraph shall be rounded to the nearest New Taiwan Dollar.

Article 32-2

A business entity specified in Subparagraph 4, Article 6 of the Act selling electronic services in foreign currency shall convert the foreign currency into New Taiwan Dollar at the closing spot buying exchange rate announced by the Bank of Taiwan on the following dates when it files a tax return for its sales amount and tax payable or overpaid in accordance with Article 35 of the Act:

1. The last day of the taxable period.
2. Where a business entity encounters a merger, ownership transfer, dissolution, or nullification of business, the last day of the prior taxable period of any of these events.

If the sales amounts of the electronic services in the preceding paragraph are not denominated in a foreign currency announced by the Bank of Taiwan, they should be converted into any foreign currency announced by the Bank of Taiwan at the closing spot buying exchange rate announced by the intermediary bank on the date specified in the preceding paragraph, and then converted into New Taiwan Dollar at the closing spot buying exchange rate announced by the Bank of Taiwan on the above date.

A business entity specified in Subparagraph 4, Article 6 of the Act, who pays business tax by remittance, shall bear remittance charges and relevant service fees and remit the tax computed in accordance with the preceding two paragraphs to the designated public treasury.

Regarding the closing exchange rate posted by the Bank of Taiwan specified in Paragraphs 1 and 2, if the spot-buying exchange rate is unavailable, a business entity shall convert the foreign currency into New Taiwan Dollar with the cash-buying exchange rate instead.

If the last day of a period specified in Paragraph 1 falls on Sunday, national holiday, or any other holiday, the last day shall be the day following that day instead, and if the last day of a period specified in Paragraph 1 falls on Saturday, the last day shall be the Monday of the following week instead.

Article 33

Where a business entity which files its tax returns under Article 35 of the Act goes into merger, undergoes transfer of ownership, dissolution or winding-up, it shall apply, within fifteen days after the occurrence of the event, to the competent tax authority for checking and approval of a tax return for the current reporting period together with a detailed list of uniform invoices issued and the documents supporting the refundable or creditable tax. If there is any business tax payable, it shall be paid to the public treasury beforehand, with the payment receipt attached to the return.

Where a business entity whose business tax is determined by the competent tax authority based on Articles 21 to 23 of the Act goes into merger, undergoes transfer of ownership, dissolution or winding-up, it shall apply to the competent tax authority, within fifteen days after the occurrence of the event, for determination of its business tax payable. Where the business entity's business tax is determined by the competent tax authority based on Article 23 of the Act and where it has input vouchers supporting its tax paid on purchases of goods or services for the current period, such input vouchers shall be attached.

Article 34

Where a business entity, which computes its business tax based on the provisions of Section I of Chapter IV of the Act, is in the process of liquidation due to dissolution or nullification of business and has to dispose of its unsold goods or services, it shall still be required to apply to the tax collection authority for use of uniform invoices and shall declare the amount of business tax payable or over-paid in accordance with Article 35 of the Act.

Where a business entity has sales and business tax payable or over-paid during the liquidation period, it shall file a business tax return with the tax authority in charge within fifteen days from the date on which the liquidation period expires for payment or refund of the business tax.

The expiration date of the liquidation period mentioned in the preceding two Paragraphs for the company organization shall be in accordance with the Company Act; for the limited partnership organization shall be in accordance with the Limited Partnership Act; and for others shall be three months from the date of dissolution or nullification.

Where a business entity fails to report its business tax payable in accordance with Paragraphs 1 and 2 of this Article, the tax authority in charge shall determine its amount of sales and tax payable and collect the tax in accordance with Article 43 of the Act.

Article 35

Inventory losses or casualty losses on goods, raw materials and supplies, work-in-process, semi-finished products and finished goods shall be allowed if such losses have been reported to and approved by the competent tax authority.

Chapter 4 Assessment and Collection Procedures

Article 36

A business entity, which computes its business tax based on the provisions of Section I of Chapter IV of the Act and has not yet commenced its operations, may file application with the tax authority in charge for issuance of an identification number in order to obtain the documentary evidence conforming to Article 33 of the Act when it makes purchases of goods or service.

Article 37

The collateral provided by a business entity in accordance with Paragraph 2 of Article 30 of the Act shall be limited to those which meet the rules under Article 11-1 of the Tax Assessment and Collection Act.

Article 38

When a business entity subject to calculation of business tax under Section 1 of Chapter 4 of the Act files its tax returns pursuant to Article 35 of the Act, the documents it shall submit in connection with the tax refundable or creditable and other relevant documents for submission are as follows:

1. Deduction copy of uniform invoices, stating the amount of business tax.
2. Deduction copy of the certificate of payment for business tax collected by Customs, stating the amount of business tax.
3. Photocopy of the receipt copy of the cash register issued duplicate uniform invoices, stating the business administration number of the business entity.
4. Certificate of sales return, purchase return, or allowances on purchased merchandise, and the "Declaration of Overpaid Business Tax Returned by the Customs."
5. Required documents as prescribed in Articles 11 and 11-1 of these Enforcement Rules for the application of the zero tax rate.
6. Documentary evidence as prescribed in Article 14 of these Enforcement Rules.
7. "Statement of Input Vouchers of a Business Entity Purchasing Used Passenger Cars or Motorcycles."
8. Deduction copy of the receipt payable before December 2015 issued by a water company, electricity company, gas company, or other public utility company, stating the purchaser's name, address, and business administration number.

9. With respect to the share of input tax paid by the business entity for water, electricity, or gas utility expenses it shares with others, a photocopy of the deduction copy of the receipt in the preceding subparagraph and the documentary evidence of the apportioned expense and tax paid by the business entity. With respect to bills payable after January 2016, a photocopy of the uniform invoice and the documentary evidence of the apportioned expense and tax paid by the business entity; with respect to cloud invoices, the alphabetic letters and numbers of the uniform invoice, or documentary evidence of the apportioned expense and tax paid by the business entity.

10. A photocopy of the receipt or stub of the train (coach) ticket, high speed railway ticket, boat ticket, or airplane ticket purchased for an employee's business trip and issued by a transportation enterprise.

With respect to a banking, insurance, or trust investment enterprise that has applied and obtained an approval pursuant to Paragraph 1 of Article 24 of the Act to calculate the business tax in accordance with Section 1 of Chapter 4 of the Act for the sales amount generated from operations not exclusively authorized to the industry to which the enterprise belongs, if it intends to revert to calculation of the business tax in accordance with Section 2 of Chapter 4 of the Act, it may do so only after applying to the competent tax authority and obtaining its approval.

With respect to a business entity that sells goods and services prescribed in Article 7 of the Act and has obtained an approval pursuant to Paragraph 2 of Article 35 of the Act to report the sales amount and the business tax payable or overpaid on a monthly basis, if it intends to revert to reporting on a two-month basis instead, it may do so only after applying to the competent tax authority and obtaining its approval.

With respect to a business entity that calculates the business tax in accordance with Section 1 of Chapter 4 of the Act and has obtained an approval pursuant to Paragraph 2 of Article 38 to have the sales amount and the business tax payable or overpaid reported by the head unit in a consolidated manner, if it intends to revert to having the same reported separately by the head unit and the other fixed places of business, it may do so only after applying to the MOF and obtaining its approval.

Article 38-3

For a business entity which shall apply for taxation registration in line with Article 28-1 of the Act, the documents it shall submit in connection with the tax refundable or creditable and other relevant documents for submission pursuant to Article 38 shall be limited to those for the sales of electronic services to domestic individuals.

Article 39

Where a business entity which computes its business tax based on the provisions of Section 1 of Chapter 4 of the Act is approved to report, based on Paragraph 2 of Article 38 of the Act, consolidated tax payable or refundable to the local competent tax authority of its head office, it shall still have each of its fixed places of business, other than the head office, report their sales amounts and the input vouchers supporting the tax paid on goods or services purchased to the respective local competent tax authority.

Article 40

Where a business entity which computes its business tax based on the provisions of Section I of Chapter IV of the Act reports its sales, tax payable or overpaid as prescribed in Paragraph 1 of Article 38 of the Act, any business tax overpaid by its fixed place of business shall be offset against future business tax payable by the head office when the registration of such fixed place of business is cancelled.

Article 41

In the event that the business tax payable by the other fixed places of business of a business entity, remains unpaid despite demand for payment by the tax authority in charge, the tax authority in charge may demand payment from the head office of the business entity or deduct the unpaid tax from the overpaid tax of the head office.

Article 42

Where as business entity which computes its business tax based on the provisions of Section I of Chapter IV of the Act and has overpaid business tax as a result of applying zero tax rate under Article 7 of the Act, the amount of the tax refundable shall be the amount calculated by imposing on the zero-tax rate sales amount the tax rate prescribed in Article 10 of the Act.

Article 43

Where a business entity, which computes its business tax based on the provisions of Section I of Chapter IV of the Act acquires fixed assets, the amount of the tax refundable shall be the amount of the tax paid on such acquisition.

Article 44

Where a business entity, whose business tax is determined by the competent tax authority as prescribed in Article 23 of the Act, claims a 10% tax credit, in accordance with Article 25 of the Act, on the tax paid on goods or services purchased, its input vouchers of the tax paid on goods or services purchased shall be filed with the competent tax authority on a calendar quarter basis prior to the 5th day of January, April, July and October.

Credit cannot be claimed if the input vouchers are not filed within the aforementioned deadlines or if the input vouchers submitted do not fall within the current period.

Article 45

For a business entity covered by Article 23 and the provision to Article 21 of the Act, the business tax of which is determined in accordance with Paragraph 1 of Article 40 of the Act, a tax assessment notice shall be prepared and issued by the tax authority in charge and sent to the business entity concerned for payment prior to the end of January, April, July and October.
