(2) Private Team Award

A. The application shall be based on individual infrastructure projects, with a limit of eight private team members per project.

B. The private institution shall prepare the recommendation forms from the authority-in-charge and relevant documents and submit a written application within the application period stipulated by the Ministry of Finance.

6. Evaluation Organization

(1) Establishment and Dissolution of Evaluation Committee

A. An Evaluation Committee is established to evaluate the applications for this award.

B. The Evaluation Committee shall be established before the application period begins and shall be dissolved after the evaluation process is completed and there are no outstanding matters.

(2) Duties of the Evaluation Committee

A. To set or approve the evaluation items, criteria, and evaluation methods for the application projects.

B. To conduct preliminary evaluation and re-evaluation of the application projects.

C. To assist in explaining matters related to the evaluation process and results.

(3) Evaluation Committee Members

A. The Evaluation Committee shall consist of seven to seventeen members, selected by the Ministry of Finance from among individuals with relevant expertise or experience from industry, government, and academia.

As a general principle, no fewer than one-third of the members shall be of the same gender.

B. A convener shall be appointed by the Minister of Finance for each of preliminary and re-evaluation meetings, and shall be responsible for presiding over such meetings.

(4) Working Group

A. A working group of at least three members shall be established simultaneously upon the establishment of the Evaluation Committee to assist the Committee in handling matters related to the evaluation. The members shall be appointed by the Minister of Finance or his/her authorized personnel from among the Ministry of Finance staff or professionals.

B. At least one member of the working group shall attend the Evaluation Committee meetings for the full duration.

(5) Recusal Circumstances for Evaluation Committee and Working Group Members

A. Where the application involves the interests of the members, their spouse, relatives within the second degree of kinship, or family members living together with the member.

B. Where the members or their spouse have an existing employment, mandate or agency relationship or had one within the past three years with the applicant or its responsible person.

C. Where there is concrete evidence to suggest a risk that the members are incapable of performing their duties impartially.

D. Other circumstances deemed by the member himself or the Ministry of Finance that the member may be incapable of performing his duties impartially.

7. Evaluation Procedure

(1) Evaluation Meeting

A. Evaluation Committee members shall conduct the evaluation impartially and shall not be represented by proxies at the meetings.

B. More than half of the total number of members of the Evaluation Committee shall be present at the evaluation meeting, and its resolution shall be passed with the consent of more than two-thirds of the attending members.

(2) Evaluation Criteria

The evaluation items, criteria, and methods shall be established or approved by the Evaluation Committee after its establishment and made public; the same shall apply to any amendments thereof.

(3) Evaluation Process

A. Preliminary Evaluation

After the working group reviews the completeness of the written documents for each application, it shall submit them to the Evaluation Committee, which will hold a preliminary evaluation meeting to determine the selected projects.

B. Re-evaluation

After on-site verification of the selected cases from the preliminary evaluation, a re-evaluation meeting shall be held to select the award winners of the High Distinction, Excellence, and Honorable Mention Awards for Government Team and Private Team, as well as the Innovation, Public Welfare, and Bilingual Benchmark Awards. Awards may be left vacant.

C. Approval of the Re-evaluation Results

The re-evaluation results shall be submitted to the Minister of Finance for approval.

8. Revocation of Award Qualification

For Private Team Award winners, if false information is provided during application or any of the following circumstances occur within five years after the winner list is published on the PPP Information Website, the authority-in-charge shall notify the Ministry of Finance, which may revoke the award qualification and publish the revocation on the PPP Information Website, and the incentive provisions of these Directions shall no longer apply:

(1) The awarded project owes unpaid taxes and fails to rectify.

(2) The awarded project has a fatal occupational disaster or a single incident resulting in three or more hospitalized casualties.

(3) The awarded project, in violation of the Occupational Safety and Health Act or the Labor Inspection Act, has been imposed a cumulative administrative fine of NT$750,000 or more by labor inspection agencies, with the ratio of cases of penalties to the number of inspections reaching 20% or more.

(4) The awarded project, in violation of environmental protection regulations, has been fined more than ten times by the competent authority.

(5) Other major controversies that have damaged the image or the purpose of the award.

9. Awarded agencies (institutions) may be invited to participate in relevant observation sessions organized by the Ministry of Finance to discuss their experiences in promoting and engaging in private participation in infrastructure projects for reference and learning by relevant sectors.

10. The expenses required for handling this award shall be budgeted and supported by the Ministry of Finance.

For each award category, a maximum of two High Distinction Awards may be granted, and, in principle, the total number of awarded projects shall not exceed one-third of total applications received for the year. However, the number of Additional Award recipients is not subject to the aforementioned ratio restriction.

In principle, one-fifth of the total awarded projects referred to in the preceding paragraph shall be cases handled pursuant to Subparagraphs 4 and 5 of Paragraph 1 of Article 8 of the Act.
