Content

Title：	When bonded goods are stolen during transit for export, customs duties shall be calculated and levied against the amount equal to (70) percent of the customs value Ch
Date：	1987.02.23
Legislative：	Announced by the Ministry of Finance Tai-Tsai-Kuan-Tzu No.7574072 on February 23, 1987
Content：	Where bonded goods from a bonded factory (company limited by shares) are stolen during transit for export, the handling of customs duties and taxes are as follows: Explanation: 2. If the bonded goods in this case are investigated and verified by the supervising Customs as indeed having been stolen during transit for export, it is agreed that customs duties shall be calculated and levied against the amount equal to (70) percent of the customs value, mutatis mutandis, in accordance with the taxation method for products sold on the domestic market.