The Customs may exempt the applicant from examination once a recognizance has been given proving the documents are consistent with the previously authenticated original copies.

The affidavit liability ceiling amount mentioned in the preceding paragraph shall not exceed twice the monthly average amount of import duty and charges in the one-year period (January to December) prior to the application date.

Article 24 For the imported goods which duties and charges due are paid by Authorized Economic Operators on a monthly consolidated declaration basis, the Customs shall, by the end of the fifth day of each month, issue a list of duty memos and import declaration forms to the Authorized Economic Operators; the Authorized Economic Operators shall pay the duties and charges due within the legal deadline prescribed in the Act.

Notwithstanding the preceding paragraph, an Authorized Economic Operator may choose to pay the duty and charges on a transaction-by-transaction basis in a month.

Article 25 Where an Authorized Economic Operator applies for submitting an affidavit in lieu of providing a guarantee of duty and charges pursuant to Article 3, the affidavit liability ceiling amount ratified by the Customs shall be restricted to cases where the duties and charges due are paid on a monthly consolidated declaration basis pursuant to the Regulations.

Where an Authorized Economic Operator provides a guarantee of duty payment pursuant to Article 4, the ceiling amount of guarantee provided shall apply to cases which duties and charges are paid on a monthly consolidated declaration basis as set forth in the Regulations or to cases which imported goods are released before duty and charges are paid pursuant to the Regulations Governing the Implementation of Post-release Duty Payment Procedures for Imported Goods.

Article 26 Where Authorized Economic Operators fall in arrears of payment of import duty and charges or receive a sanction decision notice from the Customs due to violation of regulations, the Customs may impose upon the Authorized Economic Operators a maximum of one-year suspension, in part or in whole, of the preferential measures or the status of Authorized Economic Operator, depending on the level of severity.

Article 27 A Security and Safety Authorized Economic Operator shall perform self-examination at least once a year pursuant to the Security Vetting Items and Validation Criteria set forth in Subparagraph 4, Paragraph 1 of Article 10. The Customs may conduct random inspection from time to time.

Article 28 The Customs, upon discovery of a Security and Safety Authorized Economic Operator's failure to conform to the Security Vetting Items and Validation Criteria, shall issue a notice demanding the operator to make improvement within 30 days.

The Security and Safety Authorized Economic Operator that fails to make improvement within the prescribed deadline set forth in the preceding paragraph may apply to the Customs for extension; however, the extension may take place once only and should be no more than thirty (30) days.

Where the Security and Safety Authorized Economic Operator still fails to make improvement within the deadline prescribed in the preceding two paragraphs, the Customs may suspend the preferential measures in part or in whole, and demand the Authorized Economic Operators to make improvement within a given deadline.

Article 29 The Customs shall revoke a Security and Safety Authorized Economic Operator's status and confiscate the Security and Safety Authorized Economic Operator Certificate or directly announce the revocation of the Certificate upon failure to confiscate it, provided that the Security and Safety Authorized Economic Operator:

1. Serious violation of regulations to which the Customs has given a sanction decision notice.
2. Failure to make improvement within the deadline prescribed by the Customs pursuant to Paragraph 3 of the preceding article.
3. Is confronted with severe deterioration of operation and financial status.
4. Fails to pay off the import duty and charges within a deadline prescribed by the Customs after falling in arrears of payment of the import duty and charges and therefore being subjected to the Customs' maximum one-year period of suspension, in part or in whole, of preferential measures or the status of Authorized Economic Operators.

Once a Security and Safety Authorized Economic Operator's status is being revoked, no re-application for certification is allowed within three years from the date of revocation.

Chapter 4 Supplementary Provisions

Article 30 The Authorized Economic Operators having been approved or certified by a Customs office and the ratified self-executed affidavit liability ceiling amount shall be likewise applicable to all of the Customs offices.

Article 31 The Regulations shall take effect as from the promulgation date, except Paragraph 2 of Article 7 and Paragraph 2 of Article 11 amended and announced on December 31st, 2010, which shall be put into effect on a date separately specified by Ministry of Finance.
